Motion: To accept and approve the increase footage of the lots.

By Council member Curtis Cook

Seconded Council member Jen Howe.

Vote all were in favor. Motion carried.

Question asked by Jen Howe if in the future subdivision changes and amendments have to go before the planning and zoning.

Chip Ward: Annexation Chip asked to hold the public hearing meeting Dec. 12 2013 prior to the regularly scheduled town meeting. Clerk Paula Pace will run the notice in the Insider for two weeks.

Council Member Reports.

Park Janet Hansen: For the next two weeks, Chad will be hanging lights and readying the town for the holidays. The Holiday Hoe Down will be held on December 6th at the DUP at 7:00

Roads/water Curtis Cook: Still working on the Chlorinator to be placed on the water line on Forest property.

Cemetery Jen Howe: Jen offered to give some of her cemetery money to help with the Christmas lights. It will cost her about 1000.00 for three spot lights and some light to go around the DUP building. Using the money that was budgeted for a storage building, Chad will order one for about 3600.00 instead of the 4000.00. The council supported this request as it was already budgeted.

Darrell Mansell reported on the planning and zoning. He would like to hold a work session with the council members so they could decide what ordinances to work on first. The Mayor and P&Z felt that it would be better if each had input and knew what was being done. The Mayor suggested that we have a work session in Jan. when the new council members come on board. However they decided to hold the work meeting December 3rd at 4:00 and the new council members would be invited to come.

Mayor Report

Mayor Dorsey attended a Symposium for gateway cities to National Parks. It was a forum to help the cities understand how they can benefit from the park. , the Mayor wanted to work with National Parks Conservation Association interact with them and help acquire ideas and information from them that would help the town. The Mayor said there is funding available for planning for the needs of the town that would be beneficial.

Much discussion was heard about how to manage the growth and tourism of Torrey. All council members wanted to get the businesses involved. Jennifer would like to have the town benefit and Janet wanted to make sure that the town board looks at things through the eyes of the people that live here. Anna Oops planning and zoning member suggested that we have groups to look at different aspects to generate ideas.
